

Name: Ar. Sai Akhila

Designation: Assistant Professor, ICFAI School of Architecture, IFHE

Teaching areas: Architectural Design, Architectural Drawing & Graphics, Urban Design, Human Settlements, Heritage Conservation.

Research areas: Heritage Conservations & management, City Planning & management, Historical Cities and Management.

Education:

Post-Graduation: Masters in Planning (Urban & Regional Planning), SPA Vijayawada (Class 2020)

Graduation: Bachelors in Architecture, JNAFAU, (Class 2018)

Publications:

1. Subterranean Sanctuaries: Unveiling the Cultural Significance of Stepwells in Indian Societies; Presented at “SPA Bhopal, 75 Shades of Heritage Conference (2024)”.
2. Impact of Urbanization on Heritage Precinct, Case of Golconda Precinct; Presented at “NIT Patna, Climate Change, Cultural Heritage & Sustainable Habitat Conference (2024).
3. Revitalizing India's Heritage: A Holistic Approach to Conservation and Preservation; “National Conference on Architectural and Cultural Cornerstones organized by JNIAS School of Planning and Architecture, Hyderabad.” (2024).
4. Preservation strategies for historic temples: a case study of the Meenakshi temple in Madurai, Tamilnadu; International conference on “The legacy of traditional architecture”; Aligarh University, (2024).
5. Preserving Cultural Heritage in Urban Landscapes: Strategies for Inclusive Urban Renewal and Heritage Conservation; International Conference and Knowledge series on “Inclusive, Resilient and Sustainable Human Settlement” Council of Architecture, TRC Bhopal, Institute of Town Planners India; Jaipur Smart City Limited; Synergy University; IGBC; Indian Planning Association; Poornima University, Jaipur (2024). (ISBN No: 978-81 972088-5-0)