Moot Court

The Pinnacle of Advocacy

Shri N.J. Yasaswy Memorial 10th Moot Court Competition, 2025 Inaugural Ceremony

The ICFAI Law School, IFHE, Hyderabad, successfully organized the Shri N.J. Yasaswy Memorial 10th Moot Court Competition, 2025, from 29th to 31st August 2025 at the IFHE campus, Dontanapally. The three-day event witnessed the enthusiastic participation of 37 teams from premier institutions across the country, including National Law Schools. The competition was structured around two moot propositions—the first for the preliminary rounds and quarter-finals, and the second for the semi-finals and finals—providing a rigorous and intellectually stimulating platform for students to demonstrate their research, reasoning, and advocacy skills.

The Inaugural Ceremony commenced with a warm Welcome Address by Dr. Himavathi T, Faculty Coordinator, Moot Court Society, followed by the Presidential Address delivered by Prof. Ravisekhararaju, Director, ICFAI Law School, who reaffirmed the institution's commitment to experiential learning in legal education. Prof. Y. Pratap Reddy, Dean, enriched the occasion with his introductory remarks.

The ceremony was graced by Hon'ble Shri Justice Narsing Rao Nandikonda, Additional Judge, High Court for the State of Telangana, who attended as Chief Guest. In his inspiring address, he highlighted the significance of moot courts in honing advocacy skills, cultivating professional ethics, and guiding young legal professionals towards a career dedicated to justice. The session concluded with a Vote of Thanks delivered by Dr. K. Sadanand Anantrao.

Guest Lecture Series on Family, Gender and Society

Inaugural Lecture

The Centre for Excellence in Gender Studies, Faculty of Law, successfully organized the inaugural lecture of its Guest Lecture Series on Family, Gender, and Society on August 20, 2025.

The lecture was delivered by Dr. Ramesh Kanneganti, a distinguished academic and social thinker, whose scholarship bridges law, society, and gender justice. Dr. Kanneganti's talk explored the evolving dynamics of family structures, the role of gender in shaping social norms, and the legal frameworks that promote equality and justice. The session offered students and faculty valuable insights into how societal attitudes intersect with law to influence gender relations, sparking thoughtful discussions and reflections. The programme was successfully coordinated by Ms. Astha Srivastava, Assistant Professor, along with the faculty members of the Centre.

Independence Day Celebrations

In Honour of the Fallen

On 14th August 2024, the Mereki Club of ICFAI Law School, Hyderabad, organized the 79th Independence Day celebrations at the IFHE Auditorium to commemorate India's freedom from colonial rule in 1947. The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from both students and faculty members.

The program commenced with a patriotic song rendered by Dr. Arpita Chakravarthy, Assistant Professor. This was followed by a series of cultural performances, including patriotic dances, songs, and speeches delivered by students, all centered on the theme of Independence and the nation's journey towards progress.

The celebrations reflected the spirit of patriotism and unity, providing an opportunity for the ICFAI community to collectively honor the sacrifices of India's freedom fighters and to reaffirm their commitment to the ideals of democracy and nation-building.

Independence Day Celebrations

Group Discussion

As part of the 79th Independence Day celebrations, the Saksham Club of ICFAI Law School, Hyderabad, organized a group discussion on 13th August 2025 on the role of language in shaping politics, society, and education. Members shared perspectives on the political use of language, challenges of linguistic diversity, and differences in language education across state and central boards. The session concluded with a reaffirmation of the principle of "unity in diversity," highlighting the importance of using language as a tool for inclusivity and cooperation.

Continuing its outreach initiatives, the club visited MPPS School, Ganesh Nagar, on 20th August 2025 to support the holistic development of young students. The program included yoga and meditation for mindfulness, an interactive session on hygiene, a quiz, storytelling, and a discussion on children's aspirations. These activities combined learning and creativity, leaving the students with valuable lessons beyond academics while building confidence, curiosity, and self-expression.

Independence Day Celebrations

Crossword Conquest

To mark the 15th August Independence Day celebrations, Erga Literarium, the Literary Club of ICAI Law School, Hyderabad, organized a crossword competition, "Crossword Conquest," on 13th August 2025. With the theme India and Indian Independence, the competition aimed to engage students in a thoughtful exercise blending knowledge with teamwork. The event saw enthusiastic participation in teams of two, as students raced against time to crack carefully designed crossword grids that tested awareness of India's history, the freedom struggle, and cultural heritage. The vibrant atmosphere reflected both focus and excitement, turning the contest into a celebration of knowledge and patriotism. Winners and runners-up were awarded prizes, marking a memorable conclusion to the event.
